1. INTRODUCTION

This document provides an overview of the minimum fitness for duty (FFD) requirements derived from applicable legislation, regulations, nuclear licensing requirements, world best practices, and Eskom requirements that are applicable to the operator of a nuclear power plant.

The objective of a FFD programme is to provide reasonable assurance that employees employed at the Nuclear Operating Unit (NOU) on and off site will perform their tasks in a reliable and trustworthy manner and are not under the influence of any substance or suffer from any health impairment which in any way adversely affects their ability to safely and competently perform their duties.

The FFD programme also gives reasonable assurance that employees have been trained/made aware of health and safety hazards and their technical competence/awareness has been assessed.

The requirements are commonly referred to as the “fitness for duty process” and describe the activities that must be met before a person is allowed to perform work on the Koeberg site.

2. SCOPE

2.1 PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to specify the FFD requirements for the entire Nuclear Operating Unit. The FFD process has been designed to only allow employees to perform work if they:

- Have valid identification documentation.
- Have been declared free of illicit drugs and alcohol.
- Have been declared physically able and free of any medical condition that could impair their ability to perform the work they have been appointed or contracted for.
- Have permission to perform work in South Africa (non-South African citizens).
- Have completed the security background verification process.
- Have the knowledge and skills required for the assigned tasks.
- Have received the minimum site/plant access training required to work on site/plant.
- Have been declared competent to perform the work they have been appointed or contracted for.
- Have received the specific training required for the work and work environment that they will be required to perform.
- Have obtained an understanding of how the work that they will be performing contributes to nuclear safety and station reliability.
- Have an understanding of their roles and responsibilities specific to the task that they are going to perform.

2.2 APPLICABILITY

The FFD requirements addressed in this document is applicable to Eskom and contracted employees who are required to perform work at the NOU on and off site.

This standard is not applicable to visitors. Visitors may not perform work. Access for visitors is described in KAA-777.

5. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Employees who are required to perform work at the NOU (Eskom and Contractors employees) shall comply with the FFD requirements before work may commence. The Eskom Contract and Line managers are ultimately accountable for ensuring that employees who have been employed/contracted to work at the NOU on or off site comply with the FFD requirements. This is also applicable to those employees performing work for the NOU not residing on Eskom premises and outside the Western Cape.

The requirements may differ depending on the contractual needs and the specific work that employees will be required to perform where Contractors are involved and for Eskom staff when they are employed. Paragraph 5.1 of this document describes the FFD requirements that shall be met by an employer before his/her employees will be registered on the FFD system.

Meeting these requirements is entirely the responsibility of the employer and all activities described in paragraph 5.1 shall be performed offsite at the cost of the Contractor. NOU HR is responsible to ensure that permanent, fixed term employees, bursars and learners are complying via the HR recruitment process.

It is the responsibility of the employer to ensure that his/her employees are registered on the FFD system. The registration step should be facilitated in person by the employer's FFD Site Representative. The FFD Site Representative and the Eskom Contract Manager (CM) will have to specify the actual work scope that the contracted employees will be executing as stipulated in the task order. For Eskom employees this will be done by the Group FFD Site representative.

It is recommended that employers start the recruitment and selection process well in advance of the time that the employees is required to start working at the NOU. It is strongly recommended that employers complete the FFD activities (paragraph 5.1) and register all his/her employees on the FFD system at least three weeks before he/she is due to start work at the NOU. That should leave him/her sufficient time to complete the activities mentioned in paragraph 5.2.

All Eskom training sessions includes an assessment at the end of each session. Applicants that do not pass any awareness training assessments shall not be allowed to continue with the FFD process and shall be required to leave the premises.

All employees contracted to work at Koeberg must be able to conduct themselves in English. They must be able to pass the training and assessment requirements in English.

All external training shall be provided by a service provider that is approved/accepted by the NOU Training Department.
